The appointment of E. W Cabaniss to the office of Chancellor of this District, although it may not come fully up to the high standard which Gov. Alcorn prescribed for himself in his inaugural, is nevertheless as acceptable as any that we could expect under the circumstances. As Probate Judge by appointment, and as Mayor of this City for some time past, Judge Cabaniss has not only been courteous to all, but we believe impartial and firm in the discharge of duty. With experience and application we have no doubt he will make a good Chancellor. Real "Barrett's" Circular.

MELISSA JANE, wife of J. B. Wilson, and daughter of Mrs. Nancy and the late Hardy in one year, if not entirely satisfactory to the daughter of Mrs. Nancy and the late Hardy

The ties of relationship instituted by our Heavenly Father, become stronger and dearer by years, and give to this life most of its plea-sures. When these ties are broken by death, the deepest sorrow extends through the family circle, and those who survive shed bitter tears over those who die. But of all the losses which human nature is called to weep over, few are more sad than the death of a young wife, and the mother of a family of children. When the mother dies the friend and guide of our youth mother dies the friend an

This Preparation surpasses all others of its class as a Mair Renewer.

It is thorough in its action upon Gray or Faded Hair and its effect permanent. It produces but one distinct shade, while others leave the hair in many varied colors. It promotes growth when others fall to reproduce a single hair.

It does not crisp or dry the hair, but leaves it moist and glossy. Ladies find it superior to any other as a Tollet Dressing. The ingredients used in this Preparation are the very best that one be found, and are as barns LORD & SMITH, Proprietors,
